The Garden of Remembrance Forest View

Within the Garden of Remembrance Memorial Park are unique Forest View with opportunities for families to dedicate “Back-to-Nature” boulders for the single or double entombment of cremated remains of loved ones. Nestled among forest trees and adjacent to a conservation preserve, the boulders are placed along unique walking trails.

“Back-to-Nature boulders are available in the natural colors Rustic Mahogany, Charcoal, or Mesabi Black and personalized name and date scrolls are inscribed on the Bronze cover. The cost for the perpetual boulder is $7,145 for one core and $9,620 for a companion core plus a $280 one-time contribution to the Endowed Care Trust Fund to perpetually maintain the memorial park.
